

Questions & answers about freight loading/unloading in ${\bf Downtown}\ {\bf Redmond}$

Question	Response	Contact
Are "POD" storage containers	In Downtown, PODs are not	Marilee Crivello
allowed to be placed on	allowed to be stored on City	Public Works – Right of Way
Downtown streets?	streets because:	425-556-2723
Note: In residential zones outside Downtown Redmond, POD storage is allowed if it meets the requirements of Redmond Zoning Code (RZC) Section 21.38.010.E.5.	 Outdoor storage is not permitted in Downtown per RZC Section 21.38. They are unsafe due to poor sight-distance visibility. There is a lack of time control.
Loading/unloading zones?	 Most new residential 	Rob Crittenden
	developments in Downtown	Public Works
	have loading/loading zones designated on adjacent streets. Additional zones can be established if necessary. Time limits over the use of loading/unloading zones may be established if necessary.	425-556-2838
Use of streets outside of	A Right-of-Way Use Permit	Right-of-Way Use Permit:
loading/unloading zones?	can be issued for	Marilee Crivello
	loading/unloading activity	Public Works
	outside of zones, subject to placement of traffic cones and other safety measures.	425-556-2723
	Loading/unloading will not	Extended parking permits:
	be allowed where there is	Kim Keeling
	on-street parking without an	Planning
	extended parking permit.	425-556-2451