COMMISSIONER PREPARATION

In preparation for the Planning Commission's May 25, 2011 study session, you may wish to refer to other documents to assist you in your review of proposed amendments to the Housing and Economic Vitality Elements.

- 1. The cover memo dated May 13, 2011 contains a summary of the two elements which you may find useful for a general overview.
- 2. The Housing Concept matrix was used for the discussion with Arthur Sullivan from ARCH on April 27, 2011. Please refer to the third column on the matrix that suggests policy revisions or new areas to consider. A question for Commissioner consideration is, have we adequately addressed these topics at a policy level?
- 3. The 2010 Strategic Plan for Economic Development this provides background for consideration of the Economic Vitality element. (Although labeled draft, it is the final document).

Please review the elements and identify your questions and comments prior to the meeting.

The Planning Commission will hold an initial study session on May 25, 2011 and public hearing and study session on June 8, 2011. Completion of Planning Commission recommendation is anticipated at the June 15, 2011 study session.
